

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Namibia Olympic Committee and Hollard Namibia Announce Landmark 3-Year Sponsorship Providing Free Travel and Injury Insurance for National Teams

Windhoek, Namibia — 22 October 2025 — The Namibia National Olympic Committee (NNOC) has announced a historic three-year sponsorship agreement with Hollard Namibia, providing free travel insurance and in-competition injury cover for all Namibian national teams — the first partnership of its kind in the nation's sporting history.

This groundbreaking initiative will allow Namibian athletes to compete internationally with peace of mind, knowing they are protected from travel risks and potential injuries sustained during competition.

"This is a game-changer for Namibian sport," said Dr. Ndeuli Hamutumwa, President of the Namibia National Olympic Committee. "We are so thankful to Hollard Namibia for this innovative product and for giving our athletes the opportunity to travel and compete worry-free. It's a true reflection of Hollard's commitment to athlete welfare and national pride."

With the Junior African Games scheduled to take place in Angola from 10–20 December, the sponsorship has come at the perfect time for Namibia's rising stars. "Our athletes will now head to the Games with confidence, knowing they are fully covered," Dr. Hamutumwa added.

Jaco Lamprecht, CEO of Hollard Namibia, said the partnership reflects the company's dedication to supporting Namibians in achieving their dreams.

"Hollard is proud to stand alongside the NNOC in empowering our athletes. This partnership goes beyond insurance — it's about protecting the people who inspire our nation and represent the best of Namibia on the world stage," Lamprecht said.

The sponsorship marks a milestone in athlete protection and demonstrates the power of collaboration between sport and business in driving national progress.

About Hollard Namibia

Hollard Namibia is a leading insurer committed to offering innovative and inclusive insurance solutions that empower individuals, businesses, and communities across the country.

About the Namibia National Olympic Committee (NNOC)

The NNOC is the governing body responsible for promoting Olympism and supporting Namibian athletes in national and international competitions.

The Namibia National Olympic Committee (NNOC) serves as the governing authority responsible for the preparation and delivery of Team Namibia to international multi-sport events, and for advancing Olympic values and programs nationwide.

The NNOC welcomes national sponsors and supporters who wish to join in strengthening Namibian sport and empowering athletes to compete safely and successfully across the globe by becoming partners of the NOC

Media Contact:

Communications Officer – Namibia National Olympic Committee

Email: ceo@olympic.org.na

The logo for Hollard, featuring the word "Hollard" in a purple, rounded, sans-serif font, followed by a solid orange dot.